ATTENDING a full weekend of classes allows students to deepen the effects of the practice and make personal progress. We highly recommend this time with Kofi to do just that — he will challenge you intellectually, as well as physically. His classes are not for extreme beginners, but they provide strength and stamina and will help in building a firm foundation to the practice of serious students, without encouraging dependence. We urge you to attend these classes.

KOFI BUSIA is one of the foremost teachers in the Iyengar tradition. One of Mr. Iyengar’s earliest students, he has been teaching for over 43 years, and has held his Advanced Certificate for over 42 years. He has taught all over the world, and some of the most senior and best known Iyengar yoga teachers all over the world have been his students. He started studying with BKS Iyengar while a student at Oxford University, becoming the youngest person to be certified at his level. Throughout the 1970s and up until the mid-1980s he studied regularly with BKS Iyengar at his Institute in Pune. As well as being a widely respected and renowned teacher, Kofi has translated the Yoga Sutras directly from the Sanskrit.
