Two Weekend Intensives with KOFI BUSIA

(1) Saturday & Sunday: AUG. 25 & 26, 2018

(2) Saturday & Sunday: JAN. 12 & 13, 2019

- Saturdays: 10:30 AM – 12:30 PM and 2:30 – 4:30 PM

- Sundays: 10:30 AM – 12:30 PM and 2:30 – 4:30 PM

WE are very happy to welcome Kofi back to the Yoga Center of Marin. Kofi brings over 40 years of teaching wisdom to the practice of Yoga. A longtime and advanced student and teacher in the Iyengar tradition, Kofi's teaching style is unique. Rather than providing details for each pose, Kofi guides from storytelling. Through his stories, he shows his students that the whole of life informs our yoga, and that yoga can infuse the whole of our lives. He will challenge you both physically and intellectually.

Kofi welcomes students from all backgrounds and lineages of yoga. Iyengar experience, while helpful, is not required. Some maturity and understanding of asana is useful as the poses are often long-held and basic alignment required.

Along with asana practice, there will be time for chanting and question and answer in the afternoon sessions. Bring your questions. Kofi's insight is very keen and helpful. Be sure to let him know if you need some guidance or help with a specific issue or condition.

KOFI BUSIA is one of the world's foremost teachers in the Iyengar tradition. He has been teaching for over 40 years, and has held his Advanced Certificate from BKS Iyengar for 35 years. He has taught and is recognized all over the world. He began yoga as a student at Oxford University and has taught professionally ever since. Throughout the 1970s and until the mid-1980s, he studied regularly with BKS Iyengar in Pune, India.

Although he has lived most of his life in Oxford, England, he is currently based in Santa Cruz, California, where he is putting the finishing touches to three planned books, one of which is an original translation and commentary, direct from the Sanskrit, of the Yoga Sutras of Patanjali. Visit his website at www.kofibusia.com.
